Camp

2014 Annual Report

Anna Herman CAMP DIRECTOR

Like many of you, I grew up at Jacobs. Originally from Dothan, Alabama, I had the privilege of being a camper, counselor, unit head, and then assistant director from 2001 to 2003. Like you, I have SO MANY memories from my time at Jacobs. And I can clearly see how my time as a camper - and even more so as a staff member - has impacted my life. Jacobs Camp made me who I am today, the new Jacobs Camp Director! I still consider my camp friends to be my very best friends. I even met my husband, Nadav, at Jacobs Camp! We knew there was no other place than Jacobs Camp, the place that is so important to both of us for many reasons. We were married by the chapel at Lake Gary on October 26th, 2013.

Looking back, I know I was lucky my parents were able to send me to Jacobs, but not every child is so fortunate. All those years ago, I could have never imagined a single decision would change my life forever. Every year, Jacobs Camp gives scholarship to so many families. Given today's economy, I am sure this year Jacobs Camp will give away more money than ever before - and all of that money has to come from somewhere. We need scholarship dollars more than ever this year.

Every donation we make will help a child attend Jacobs THIS summer. Any size donation is appreciated and will show your support. The more money we raise together the more children we can help together. This is our chance to do our small part to ensure that the "Jacobs Magic" will be around forever!

Now, let's jump into Jacobs, together!

All those years ago, I could have never imagined a single decision would change my life forever.

Danny Mansberg CAMP CHAIR

Why do we build during Sukkot? During the four days after Yom Kippur when we've torn ourselves down, we stand back up and begin to build again. Together, we construct our "booths" to remind us of the harvest, a Jewish Thanksgiving, if you will. We build to celebrate our protection during our 40-year sojourn in the wilderness and to remind us to appreciate the shelter of one another. That's what it means to be a Jew: we build for one another every year forever more.

Jacobs' Thanksgiving is easy! Every year we take time to reflect upon our greatest blessing: our stakeholders, our future builders.

- Our Donors: for the 6th consecutive year, we helped set an annual record of funds raised for both scholarship and for capital improvement.
- Our Campers, Parents, and Families: 24% of the Reform Jewish children in our region attend Jacobs, a number for which we are truly thankful and do not take for granted.
- Our Clergy and Congregational partners: their support and vision sustain our future.
- Our Professionals, Staff, and Counselors: special role models, teachers, and friends who guide and encourage young minds to embrace their Judaism.

The protection in the wilderness is a little more ephemeral. In Utica (which some may actually consider a wilderness of sorts), we have built a remarkable campus which is designed to create wonderful memories, experiences, and lessons that will sustain our community for many years to come. As our ancestors survived the desert to build a promised land, and as the original Israeli's planted a garden in the sand, we must also be attuned to securing our future.

This year we successfully entered the Nashville community for the first time, and we are excited to welcome their children to our camp. In addition, we established an incentive for children of military families which is being embraced nationally. We are thrilled to create a camping home for these children who will be joining us from across the United States.

The Sukkah is a temporary structure suited for its purpose in the fields and in our celebration, but it's not intended to be permanent. Yet, our 45th season was defined by future leaders creating continuity. We are fortunate to welcome Dream Street's new Executive Advisory Board chaired by Seth Kaplan. He will partner with Ellie Streiffer, Kyle Goldich, and Judith Kaplan Kiefer in directing a signature program of HSJ.

We said goodbye to Jonathan "JC" Cohen after 14 progressive years on the cutting edge of Jewish camping. We thank him for his commitment to our camp community. We also wish Gary Brandt our longest serving assistant and 1st Associate Director well as he sojourns Boulder, CO to positively impact Jewish teens there. Their imprint and foresight will help drive us forward as we continue to build for future generations of campers and their families Tov Meod - JC and Gary Tov Meod!

We are excited to welcome a new Assistant Camp Director, Sam Paillet and NFTY Southern Advisor/ Assistant Camp Director, Becci Jacobs. And, as we look beyond to future summers, we are thrilled to welcome Anna B. Herman our Director and her husband Nadav as they returned home to HSJ in late June. We will continue to build a community for a bright and permanent future with our new leadership in place.

From Strength to Strength!

Ellen Alexander DEVELOPMENT DIRECTOR

As I reflect on my fifth summer at HSJ, I am proud to present our annual year-end report demonstrating the incredible support and commitment Jacobs Camp receives from so many across the country. You, our donors, are the reason Jacobs has flourished over the years, and continues to grow and bloom. It is your dedication and love of Reform Jewish Camping that has allowed Jacobs to make a difference for 45 years and counting. I am excited to look with you into the future and make your dreams for Jacobs Camp a reality.

I would like to highlight the members of the Development Committee; their support and energy makes every year a success:

- Kathy Grundfest, Giving Chair
- Albert Oppenheimer, Donor Relationship Coordinator
- Adam Magnus, Alumni Chair
- Robin Zebrowitz Harpak, Alumni Communications Chair
- Scott Price, State Coordinator: Texas
- Amy Cohen Katz, State Coordinator, Tennessee
- Rabbi Jim Egolf, Outreach
- Natalie Royal Selzer, Outreach
- Clare Levy Clarke, Outreach

If you would like to visit Jacobs this summer to see the wonderful improvements and experience the Jacobs Magic all over again, it would be our pleasure to welcome you back home - just be in touch with me directly!

Thank you again and again.

From prayer to song to practice, so much of the lives of our families revolve around the phrase l'dor vador, "from generation to generation."

The Legacy Society is a campaign designed to help individuals and families support Jacobs Camp, now and in the future, with bequests. You have the ability to make a difference in the lives of future Jacobs campers. Your bequest or other planned gift will keep our camp strong for generations. We would like to thank all of our donors. During the summer of 2014, Jacobs was able to provide almost $275,000 in financial assistance to 250 campers. Not only have we been able to help out our families financially, but, we have also continued to provide the best Jewish camping experience possible. We have been blessed by an incredible community of supporters. It is my sincere hope you will continue to support Jacobs year round.
